NETWORKING EVENT HOSTS KIM ROBAK

WomenLINC promotes women's networking activities

More than a hundred women are expected to attend October's WomenLINC event, a program designed for women networking with other women in the Lincoln and Lancaster County area. This event promotes women's leadership development. WomenLINC will host Kim Robak.

Robak will briefly discuss why networking is important for "Women In Government" on Thursday, October 16, 2003 from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Lincoln Woman's Club, 407 S. 14th St., Lincoln, Neb. The reservation deadline is October 10, 2003.

Working for the University of Nebraska as vice president for External Affairs & Corporation Secretary since 1999, Robak served as Lieutenant Governor of the State of Nebraska for six years. Prior to her career in government, she was a partner with the Rembolt, Ludtke Parker and Berger law firm and a teacher at Irving Junior High School. She remains active in many civic organizations and serves on several for profit and not for profit boards.

WomenLINC is a networking program that brings together young women and established women from all walks of life to create opportunities of leadership, role modeling and education.. This is a great opportunity for women to exchange information, resources, support and ideas.

WomenLINC is sponsored by Oddiyana: A Center for Women and Girls, the Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission and Friends of LLWC.
